MATERIAL AT THE LBJ LIBRARY PERTAINING TO CHINA, TAIWAN, HONG KONG, SOUTH KOREA AND NORTH KOREA

INTRODUCTION

This list includes the principal files in the LBJ Library that contain material on China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, South Korea and North Korea. It is not definitive, however, and researchers should consult with an archivist about other potentially useful files. For additional material on these countries, see also the Library's guide entitled, "Foreign Economic Policy During the Johnson Presidency: Foreign Aid, Food for Peace and Third World Economic Development (Asia, Africa, and Latin America)" (CO 1-8, CO 121, FG 105-4, FO 3, FO 3-2, IT 80, PC 2). Those files listed below that are marked with two asterisks () are unprocessed and are not currently available for research.

In many folder titles noted below, the term "China" is used to mean Taiwan. Unless otherwise noted, the term "Korea" refers to South Korea. Material concerning the Asian Development Bank and the Manila Conference concerns South Korea. Material on the Pueblo (the United States naval vessel seized by the North Koreans on January 23, 1968) concerns North Korea.

NATIONAL SECURITY FILE (NSF)

This file was the working file of President Johnson's special assistants for national security affairs, McGeorge Bundy and Walt W. Rostow. Documents in the file originated in the offices of Bundy and Rostow and their staffs, in the various executive departments and agencies, especially those having to do with foreign affairs and national defense, and in diplomatic and military posts around the world.

More than half of the National Security File has been processed and opened for research. Consult the finding aid in the Reading Room or borrow a copy by mail by writing to the Supervisory Archivist, LBJ Library, 2313 Red River Street, Austin, Texas 78705. Those folders whose titles are preceded by an "X," an asterisk, or a date have been processed and their contents declassified in whole or in part. Lists of classified documents have been placed in those folders, and you may request mandatory review of individual documents which have not yet been declassified in full. Those folders not preceded by an "X," an asterisk, or a date are unprocessed and are not subject to mandatory declassification review. Consult with a member of the staff on the processing schedule.

Many White House aides maintained office files of their own, separate physically from the rest of the White House Central Files. The files of each aide reflect his or her responsibilities. This list is not definitive, but it does include most pertinent folders in the aides files. If a folder is not open for research, it will be processed upon request. Researchers should anticipate a delay in receiving this material. ( = unprocessed)

LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON ARCHIVES 1931-1968

In 1958, the Johnson staff instituted a records management program in the office which included a plan to dispose of noncurrent files. They set up the Lyndon Baines Johnson Archives (LBJA) to house items to be permanently retained rather than scheduled for disposal. Johnson files from the House and Senate period were screened, and selected items and files were moved to the LBJA file. Between 1958 and 1963, the staff continued to add to the file. Occasionally, items were added during the White House period. The LBJA consists of four parts: a Congressional File, a Famous Names File, a Selected Names File, and a Subject File.

HANDWRITING FILE

This file is a unique collection in that some of the documents located here do not appear in any other location in LBJ's papers. During the White House period, Dorothy Territo's office maintained this collection. If documents contained LBJ's handwriting or doodling, they were sent to this office, sometimes bypassing the White House Central File. Consequently, some material in the Handwriting File is not in WHCF or any other file.

The Diary Cards in the Reading Room provide an alphabetically arranged name index to the President's appointments. Once the date of an appointment has been determined, check the "Diaries and Logs" finding aid for the number of the appropriate box in Diary Backup. On China and Korea, see the following folders:
