MATERIAL AT THE LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON LIBRARY PERTAINING TO THE UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY (USIA)

INTRODUCTION

While this list includes the principal files available for research on the United States Information Agency (USIA), it is by no means exhaustive. Researchers may wish to consult the Johnson Library's finding aids to locate additional material.

Researchers interested in the USIA should also consult the Foreign Relations of the United States. This multi-volume series published by the Office of the Historian of the Department of State presents the official documentary historical record of major foreign policy decisions and diplomatic activity of the United States government. The volumes are available online at the Department of State web site which may be accessed at the "Related Links" button, under the "Research" button on the Johnson Library web site, www.lbjlib.utexas.edu.

Please note: files which have not been fully processed are followed by a double asterisk ().

NATIONAL SECURITY FILE

This file was the working file of President Johnson's special assistants for national security affairs, McGeorge Bundy and Walt W. Rostow. Documents in the file originated in the offices of Bundy and Rostow, and their staffs, in the various executive departments and agencies, especially those having to do with foreign affairs and national defense, and in diplomatic and military posts around the world.

More than two-thirds of the National Security File has been processed. Consult the finding aid in the Reading Room or borrow a copy by mail by writing to the Supervisory Archivist, LBJ Library, 2313 Red River St., Austin, Texas 78705. Portions of the NSF finding aid, including the finding aid for the NSF, Country File, are available on the Johnson Library web site, www.lbjlib.utexas.edu.

MEETING NOTES FILE

This collection includes notes for 100 of President Johnson's foreign police meetings from 1963 through 1968, mostly with senior foreign policy advisers and Congressional leaders. While three-fourths of the meetings deal mainly with the Vietnam War, there is some material on Arms Control.

CABINET PAPERS

Discussions at Cabinet meetings infrequently dealt with arms control issues. Two instances are noted below. Included in the Cabinet Papers are agenda, background memos, draft presidential remarks, and other materials. Consult the Special Files finding aid for additional information.

"Cabinet Meeting, 10/20/64" 1

DAILY DIARY AND PRESIDENT'S APPOINTMENT FILE (DIARY BACKUP)

The Daily Diary is a log of the President's activities, appointments, and phone calls. Occasionally, it includes information on the substance of meetings and conversations.

This file of backup material for the President's appointments includes schedules, briefing materials, memoranda of conversations, and other sources. Organized by date, there is a folder for almost every day of the administration. The Diary Cards in the Reading Room provide an alphabetically arranged name index to the President's appointments. Once the date of an appointment has been determined, check the "Diaries and Logs" finding aid for the number of the appropriate box in Diary Backup. The following folders are known to contain materials pertaining to the United States Information Agency:

"Carl Rowan"	Drawer 70
"Leonard Marks"	Drawer 54

RECORDINGS AND TRANSCRIPTS OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS

This collection includes over 6,000 recordings of President Johnson's conversations with members of Congress, other public officials, members of the Press, and friends and family from November 1963 through January 1969. This collection includes a significant number of recorded conversations that pertain to the United States Information Agency (USIA). Detailed individual descriptions of the conversations are available on the Library's web site, <http://www.lbjlib.utexas.edu>. The Miller Center has the recordings of conversations available on their web site; our web site has a link to the Miller Center under the "Related Links" button in the "Research" section.

WHITE HOUSE CENTRAL FILES (WHCF), SUBJECT FILE

This permanent White House office was the main filing unit during the Johnson presidency, though not the primary file for foreign policy documents. Material was filed under 60 major subject headings, several of which are pertinent to the United States information Agency. For descriptions of the various subject headings, see the finding aid for WHCF.

OFFICE FILES OF JOHN MACY

John Macy was the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission. As a "talent scout" he maintained a file on all persons considered for appointments. These folders are reviewed on written request. A card file is maintained in the Reading Room for those name files currently available. Researchers should anticipate a delay in receiving this material.

HANDWRITING FILE

More than 15,000 pages of memos, notes, doodles, and other documents with Lyndon Johnson's handwriting (excluding material normally filed in the National Security File) were placed in a special Handwriting File during the Johnson presidency. Copies were frequently placed in the regular files, but some documents in this file cannot be found elsewhere (for example, the scratch pad notes collected by secretaries from the Oval Office and the Cabinet Room). The file is arranged chronologically, making it possible to check for material on South Asia for certain times. The following folders are known to have material pertaining to the United States Information Agency:

LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON ARCHIVES 1931-1968

In 1958 the Johnson staff instituted a records management program in the office which included a plan to dispose of noncurrent files. They set up the Lyndon Baines Johnson Archives (LBJA) to house items to be permanently retained rather than scheduled for disposal. Johnson files from the House and Senate period were screened, and selected items and files were moved to the LBJA file. Between 1958 and 1963, the staff continued to add to the file. Occasionally items were added during the White House period. The LBJA consists of four parts: a Congressional File, a Famous Names File, a Selected Names File, and a Subject File.

RECORDS OF THE UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY

The use of these records is subject to the policies of the agency of origin. Some materials, including the majority of the records of the temporary commissions, committees, and conferences, are available without restriction. Other materials can be seen only with the permission of the agency of origin or are closed due to security classifications.

The LBJ Library holds 19 linear feet and 331 rolls of microfilm records of the U.S. Information Agency, 1956-1968. All of these records are open for research without restriction.

The 19 linear feet of hard copy records consist mostly of field publications from various countries. There are 53 boxes of hard copy records and 331 rolls of microfilm.

ORAL HISTORIES

Transcripts of oral history interviews may be consulted at the Library or borrowed by mail. Up to four oral history transcripts can be borrowed through the mail for two weeks at a time. REMOTE ARCHIVES CAPTURE (RAC) PROJECT FILE

The RAC Project File contains photocopies of documents opened in whole or in part by the Remote

Archives Capture declassification program from those collections that are not yet open for research. Under the RAC project, over 650,000 pages of documents at the LBJ Library were scanned and transmitted to Washington, D.C. for declassification review. Periodically, the reviewed material is returned to the Library and processed by our staff as part of our on-going declassification efforts. Material on South Asia may be found in the RAC Project File. Consult the finding aid for the RAC Project File or an archivist for more information.

AUDIOVISUAL ARCHIVES

The audiovisual archives holds an extensive collection of still photographs, motion picture footage, audiotapes, and videotapes. Consult the audiovisual archivist for information.
