MATERIAL AT THE LBJ LIBRARY PERTAINING TO VIETNAM, THE MEDIA, AND PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR THE WAR

INTRODUCTION

This list includes the principal files in the Johnson Library that contain material relating to Vietnam, the media and public support for the war. It is not definitive, however, and researchers should consult with the Library's archivists about other potentially useful files. The guide includes those collections that have been opened for research in part or in whole, and those collections that are currently unprocessed or unavailable. The Library has also prepared lists of material available on the following topics: The Presidency and the Press; Public Opinion Polls and Mail.

WHITE HOUSE CENTRAL FILES, SUBJECT FILE (WHCF)

This permanent White House office was the main filing unit during the Johnson presidency, though not the primary file for foreign policy documents. Material was filed under 60 major subject headings, some of which are pertinent to Vietnam, the media, and public support for the war.

Ex ND 19/CO 312

Consult volume II of the finding aid for the White House Central Files, under Executive ND 19/CO 312, for a lengthy description of the 20 boxes of material in this file.

For material on speeches on the Vietnam War, consult the Statements file under the appropriate date, and the Speeches (SP) subject category in the White House Central Files

WHCF CONFIDENTIAL FILE

Arranged in the same subject categories as the WHCF Subject File, this file contains security classified or otherwise sensitive material. The CF Name File serves as a name index to the CF Subject File. This collection also includes agency reports and oversize attachments. The CF is entirely processed, but portions are still classified.

NATIONAL SECURITY FILE

This file was the working file of President Johnson's special assistants for national security affairs, McGeorge Bundy and Walt W. Rostow. Documents in the file originated in the offices of Bundy and Rostow and their staffs, in the various executive departments and agencies, especially those having to do with foreign affairs and national defense, and in diplomatic and military posts around the world. More than one-half of the National Security File has been processed. Consult the finding aid in the Reading Room or borrow a lending copy by writing to the Supervisory Archivist, LBJ Library, 2313 Red River Street, Austin, TX 78705. Those folders whose titles are preceded by an asterisk "" or a date have been processed and their contents declassified in whole or in part. Lists of classified documents have been placed in those folders, and you may request mandatory review of individual documents that have not yet been declassified in full. Those folders not preceded by an "" or a date are possibly unprocessed and are not subject to mandatory declassification review. Consult with a member of the staff on the processing schedule.

OFFICE FILES OF THE WHITE HOUSE AIDES

Many White House aides maintained office files of their own, separate physically from the rest of the White House Central Files. The files of each aide reflect his or her responsibilities. This list is not definitive, but it does include most pertinent folders in the aides files. If a folder is not open for research, it will be processed upon request. Researchers should anticipate a delay in receiving this material.
